

DISCLOSURE

S. 181 Referred to Rules and Administration Committee
[Case, Philip Hart, Weicker]

H.R. 110; 2684; 2685 Referred to Standards of Official Conduct
[Kastenmeier] Committee and to Judiciary Committee

H.R. 2053; 2359; 2926 Referred to Standards of Official Conduct
[Steelman] Committee and to Judiciary Committee

S. 181

1. Employees of the 3 branches of Government who make in excess of $25,000 per year shall file annually a report with the Comptroller General containing the following information:

- (a) amount and source of each item of income and gift over $100;
- (b) value of each asset held by him solely or jointly with his wife;
- (c) amount of each liability owed;
- (d) all dealings in securities or commodities;
- (e) all purchases and sales of real property.

2. Comptroller General shall prescribe the form and detail for these reports by regulations.

3. Each report shall be made under penalty of perjury, with a penalty of five years in prison and/or a $2,000 fine for willfully failing to file a report or filing a false report.

4. All reports shall be maintained as public records which shall be available to the public under Comptroller General regulations.

H.R. 110; 2684; 2685

Same as S. 181, except report required for federal employees who make over $18,000 a year.

H.R. 2053; 2359; 2926

Similar to S. 181, except report required for employees making over $32,000 a year and also requires information on taxes paid.